How did you learn about Dachshund by Design?

Have you ever had a pet in the past? How long?

Do you have any pets in the home now? Breed and age?

How did you come about deciding you wanted a dachshund in your home?

Do you have an area in your home where your puppy can be left safely unsupervised?

Do you have a fenced yard?

Will you be able to provide play time and exercise daily for your puppy?

Your puppy will need to be potty trained. It is important to patiently provide this training to your puppy. Please be aware that some are very quick to pick this up where others are not. Do you have the patience for this task?

Quality care for a dog can be expensive. Have you considered how you can financially prepare for these expenses?

Caring for a puppy can be rewarding but also very time consuming. Do you feel you have the time in your schedule to provide a loving care to a puppy?

A puppy should always be considered a member of the family. The love shared between a person and their dog is paramount to the happiness of both. Have you _

Your precious puppy is going to grow up and become an adult. Fortunately, the dachshund breed is generally hardy and healthy with the benefits of a long life span. You can look forward to sharing 12 – 15 years of companionship with your puppy. Are you prepared to support and nurture a dog through its lifetime?

Are you looking to show your dog?

Are you looking to breed your dog?

We have a spay/neuter contract for non-show puppies. Are you willing to uphold this non-breeding agreement?

Dachshund by Design looks forward to helping you bring a precious puppy into your life. After we have approved your applications you will become an active pet parent waiting for the arrival of your new babies.
